MEETING OF THE BOARD OF HEALTH

Regular Session of Health Body Held In the Municipal Building Last Night—The Meeting Is An Abbreviated One

COWS ARE TO BE TESTED

Secretary John N. O'Neil Instructed to Write State Department Asking That It Send An Official Here With This Object In View

The regular monthly meeting of the Charleroi Board of Health was held in the Municipal building last night. The session was an abbreviated one, the principal business coming before the body was that of the feasibility of having the cows of the 33 dairies dispensing lacteal fluid in Charleroi examined—tuberculin tested, et cetera. Secretary John N. O'Neill was instructed to write to the State Department of Health at Harrisburg asking that it send a representative here to conduct the work of examination.

This movement on the part of the local health board is in conformity with procedure that has been taken by other health bodies of the state; and it is done not with the underlying motive and suspicion that some of the cows to be examined are diseased in any manner whatsoever, but as a precautionary method in the interests of the public.

In this connection it might be said that deducing from the report of Health Officer William M. Darby as given last night, the health conditions in the borough are especially good—very few contagious or infectious maladies exist; and as the use of milk is prevalent in cases of sickness, very oft, it would seem that the character of the same dispensed here is of healthful quality.

During the session Health Officer Darby said conditions at the baseball park had been made sanitary.

CLUB ACQUITTED OF LIQUOR LAW VIOLATION

A verdict of not guilty was brought in by the jury in the case against the Connellsville Moose club, the verdict being reached by the jury on the tenth ballot. The defendants were charged with the costs of the cases. Because of the importance of the case a great deal of interest was manifested in the outcome, and the verdict was awaited with no little interest and considerable curiosity.

MUSICAL PUPILS ENTERTAIN FINELY AT AUDITORIUM

The pupils of Samuel Simcox, Jr., entertained a large audience of their friends last evening with a fine program of violin music in the auditorium of the Charleroi High school. The numbers chosen comprised works from the best classic and modern composers and were well received. Technique and clearness of tone were much in evidence, even from the smallest student. A program of thirty numbers was presented, the advanced pupils concluding with a fine repertoire of classical music.

Mr. Day, of the Schroeder Piano company, announced each number. The accompanists at the piano did very effective work. They were Mrs. Goldie Simcox, Miss Alice Peach, Miss Gladys Dale, Miss Graham, and Miss Margaret Trenton.

Those who participated in the program were as follows: Jean Potts, Blanche Peach, Edna Lammay, Evelyn Crable, Helen Munch, John and James Adamson, William Mitchell, Vincent Lee, Dale Gottheld, Frede Williamson, John Bentley Greenlee, Myrle Kennedy, John Hopkins, Donald Carson, Margaret Oates, Roy Schultz, Robert and Ruth Crowl, Gertrude Trenton, Raymond Barrass, Grace Barrass, Charles Foreman, Virginia Manon, Elizabeth Grummer, Romola Sutherland, Eleanor McDermott, Sherman Mason, Joseph Clements, Steve Bircheck, Walter Gottheld and Nicholas Konecheck of Belle Vernon, 'cellist.

Act of Heroism By Alleged Criminal Is The Means of Bringing Him to Justice

Through a deed of heroism, Raymond Steinmetz, alias Fred Steinmetz, alias Fred Johnson, a fugitive from justice in both Westmoreland and Washington counties, has been located and placed under arrest, while an application has been made to Governor Pinchot for extradition papers to have him brought back to this state from Kansas to answer numerous charges.

Snatching a five-year-old girl from the path of a train, Steinmetz barely escaped death when the engine struck the rear of his machine. The child and Steinmetz fearlessly drove over the tracks in the path of the oncoming train, grabbed the child and safely reached the other side. The news of this daring act was published in the country's newspapers through the various news services, and the account of the act came to the eye of Chief of Police William A. Horn of Monessen. Chief Horn immediately got in touch with the Kansas authorities and sent a description of the man who is wanted here on seven charges of larceny, also desertion and non-support, fraud and breaking parole. The man in question answered the description, according to the Kansas authorities, and he was placed under arrest, but refused to waive extradition.

According to Monessen officials, six months ago Steinmetz came to Monessen and worked as a chemist in the mill. He secured a room with Rev. A. F. Schilling, pastor of the German Evangelical Lutheran church. During his stay at the Schilling home, he wooed and won the hand of the sister of Rev. Schilling. They were married after a short courtship. However, Steinmetz disappeared a few weeks later, taking with him a large diamond ring belonging to his bride, and several other articles of value. Rev. Schilling became suspicious of the man's past history, began an investigation and learned that he had served ten years at Joliet, Ill., for larceny, and 11½ years at the Ohio State penitentiary, where he had been paroled. Authorities got busy and traced the man to West Virginia, after he had eluded capture several times.

Constable Wyatt was sent after the man, but through trickery on Steinmetz's part, he got away. Steinmetz, at that time, hired a taxi to take him to Donora, where he secured money from an attorney, going from there to Pittsburgh, where he escaped without paying a large taxi bill. Wyatt being the victim of the ruse.

However, through his recent exploit in the West, the man is now in the hands of authorities, and it is presumed justice in his case will be meted in full measure.

Many Attend Memorial For A. C. McLean

The Memorial services which were held in the Protected Home Circle hall last night by members of Charleroi Circle, 363, and visiting members were of an impressive nature, which reflects creditably upon the committees in charge.

The hall was appropriately decorated for the occasion in red, white and blue, the emblematic colors of the order. The occasion was in honor of the late A. C. McLean, Supreme President of the Protected Home Circle. Approximately 150 persons were in attendance, representative of Mt. Pleasant, Connellsville, Uniontown and Monessen, as well as from other Circles in the outlying district. The following program was carried out:

Selection, violin and piano—T. Purks and C. Purks.

Invocation—Rev. E. N. Duty.

"America"—Audience.

Opening Address—W. L. Davies.

Vocal Solo—"here Is No Death" by O'Hara, Walter Stroud, accompanied on the piano by Miss Margaret Gunderman.

Roll Call.

Eulogy—Supreme Vice President, Judge J. A. McLaughery of Mercer.

Violin Solo—"Face to Face," Earl Hott, accompanied by Miss Mary A. Allison.

Woman Is Sued Funeral Bill In A Death

W. E. Shepler of Finleyville has filed a suit against Margaret Waugh, in which he [illegible] al expenses in connection with the death of Robert Gilmore, a brother of the defendant.

Dr. F. L. Knox, of Claysville, has filed a suit against R. H. Meloy, of Washington, executor of the estate of Margaret Cunningham of Claysville, in which there is claimed $201 with interest from October 6, 1923. This sum is alleged due for medical services given Mrs. Cunningham during her last illness.

Myrtle Hough Smith, of Bargettstown, has filed a suit in divorce against Clyde B. Smith, in which she charges him with cruel and barbarous treatment and infidelity. They were married December 11, 1915. She says that almost immediately after their marriage his mistreatment began. He abused her frequently and demanded that she return to her home. She says that once after being home and returning to her husband she found him taking other women into the house. On other occasions she knew of him being with other women. On May 3, 1924, she says her husband was in an automobile wreck and in the accounts published it stated he was with his wife. This she says was incorrect, that the woman he represented to be his wife was another woman.

GOTHAM SON OF WEALTH MISSING

Believed That Franklin Roshek, Aged 14, Is Lured Away By Romantic Tales of Travel Told By An Obscure Hobo

SIMILAR TO FRANKS CASE

Kidnaping Not Suspected, Indications Being That Boy's Departure Is Premeditated—When He Left He Had Only $1.50 In Change

New York, Sept. 27—Although romantic tales of travel, visions of strange lands and stormswept seas, may have taken Franklin Roshek, 14-year-old son of wealth from his parents luxurious apartment in uptown New York, police today are pointing to the grave similarity between the boy's continued absence and the disappearance of Bobby Franks.

It was a young hunchback hobo, of obscure address, a street corner acquaintance, who built visions in Franklin's mind, took him to the foot of Riverside Drive, pointed to the ships at anchor in the river, and told him of playgrounds around the world open only to the seafarer.

This much has been learned from Michael Levy, 11, a chum who has told of Franklin's acquaintance with the hunchback. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Roshek, have been distracted since Tuesday, when the boy left for school and did not return in the evening.

"My pet, my baby, oh my baby," cries Mrs. Roshek. "How could he ever leave his home? I have given him everything."

A glimpse of the apartment, and one knows this is true. Only last Sunday Franklin had a birthday and having expressed an interest in astronomy he was given a telescope that could hardly have cost less than $350. He has an expensive radio set, scores of books, and in his room is a catcher's mask and a "big league" glove and all sorts of playthings that "Hunchback Reilly," as the young Levy boy calls Franklin's newly-found friend, could never hope for, despite his imaginative mind.

When he left home Franklin had, as far as his father knows, only $1.50 in change, but he carried an expensive gold watch. His clothes were costly and well tailored.

For three days wharves, parks, railway stations, and even more remote possibilities have been scoured and no trace of the boy has been uncovered. His father, a buyer for a western dry good house, has ordered a nation-wide search.

Kidnaping is not suspected because the boy left the apartment Tuesday without schoolbooks, although his mother had prepared them and left them neatly piled on a table near the door. This points to a premeditated departure, although his mother, almost beside herself with grief and running from room to room as though she will find her boy hiding from her in a childish prank, believes he couldn't have gone of his own will.

Two Young Men Are Being Held For Daylight Holdup

Two young men who gave their names as Steve Masrak, aged 19, of Randall, W. Va., and Peter Valentino, also of Randall, W. Va., were arrested by Chief of Police Lewis Vandever of Fredericktown and taken to Washington last night, where they were incarcerated in the county jail. It is believed that the accused were implicated in a daylight holdup near Clarksville at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The man said to have been held up was a stranger in the Clarksville district. He was in the vicinity of the Pitt Gas Coal company mine looking for work when he was robbed of two watches and $50 in money.

According to the victim of the highwaymen, the two approached him from different directions and caught up with him at the same time as he was walking along the road. After relieving him of his valuables they permitted him to go free.

Masrak and Valentino were arrested last evening by Chief of Police Lewis Vandever. They were arraigned before Justice of the Peace George C. McClellan of Fredericktown, and held for court under $2,000 bail.

HONOR THE MEMORY OF FRANCES WILLARD

In commemoration of Frances Willard, institutor of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, whose birthday anniversary falls on Sunday, September 28, the members of the Frances Willard class, of the Methodist Episcopal church, who took the name of this great leader, carried out an appropriate and very interesting program last night at a meeting held at the home of Mrs. R. V. Golden of 310 Meadow avenue. Mrs. Thomas H. Warrensford, chairlady of the program committee, was in charge of the program last evening. Mrs. T. L. Pollock gave a very interesting review of Frances Willard's life, while Mrs. E. H. Greenlee gave an impressive talk on the dead leader's extended activities. A number of Frances Willard's favorite hymns were sung, [illegible] concluded the program. During the social hour, luncheon was served by the hostesses, Mrs. Golden, Mrs. Harry C. Yon, Mrs. Bruce K. ## FINAL TOUCH FOR CHURCH INTERIOR

The church school room of St. Mary's Episcopal church has been undergoing many repairs and improvements for the past six weeks and it is expected that the room will be thrown open for use tomorrow week.

Members of the Vestry and Ladies' Guild have been tireless in their efforts to improve the large basement room to make a more pleasant place for the church school children. Many of their afternoons and evenings have been spent in the room, building, painting and rearranging it, so that when ready for use it will be one of finest and most commodious church school rooms of the town.

As the final touch the members of the Ladies' Guild will hold their regular meeting in the basement room next Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, and attired in aprons, and with soap, brush and bucket, will proceed to complete the work. Mrs. Clive Enos, president of the organization, desires a large attendance at this meeting and any other church member who is interested in the work, will be welcomed at this "clean-up" session.

LADY CHAMPION IS GIVEN A SILVER CUP

Two Persons Are Hurt And Three Cars Damaged In Automobile Accident

The slippery hill, due to the rain, and a sharp curve at Nash's farm on the West Newton road, were causes of three automobile accidents which occurred last evening at 5:30, to Belle Vernon people returning from West Newton, where they had witnessed the football game between the Belle Vernon and West Newton High schools. Two persons were hurt, and the three cars were badly damaged.

The three machines were being driven down the steep grade at the point named, directly in the rear of each other. The first car, a Dodge touring machine, driven by Guido Tesi of Belle Vernon, coming down the hill somewhat faster than was permissible owing to the slippery condition turned over in the ditch after the driver had applied his brakes in turning the bend. A rear wheel was broken on this car. In order to avoid hitting the Dodge, a Ford coupe in its rear owned and driven by Joe Amato, of Belle Vernon turned around a number of times in the road when the driver applied the brakes. The front axles were found to be bent

55 ARE KILLED BY AUTOMOBILE

During the month of August, in Pennsylvania cities and on state highways, 55 persons were killed and 1,429 injured in auto accidents, the state highway department announced. Forty-four persons were killed and 1,214 injured in cities.

As has been the case since the highway department began the compilation of accident figures, the August report shows that the greatest number of accidents occurred where the danger was least. Accidents on the state highways occurred at the following places: Railroad crossing 5, road crossing 21, highway bridge 13, undergrade crossing 1, highway culvert 7, straight road section 101, light curves 40, sharp curves 37, light grades 50, heavy grades 22.

WORKHOUSE FOR A WEBSTER MAN

Carrying a gun and a mask and prowling over the hillside at night is not the right idea of a law abiding citizen according to Judge Dom of Greensburg, who yesterday morning on receiving the plea of guilty by John Lumsdon, a negro of Webster, sentenced him to serve nine months in the workhouse.

Lumsdon was arrested near Webster last week while a posse was searching for the negro who shot and killed Chief of Police Rae of West Newton. When the man was placed under arrest and the gun and mask found on his person members of the posse thought they had caught the murdered and a lynching party was almost staged before he was rescued, and thrust in the Monessen jail.

FATHER PENN TO WELCOME BABIES

The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania will start next week, through its Health Department, to mail to the parents of every new-born child in Pennsylvania an official notice stating that the birth has been registered at Harrisburg. The mailing of the notice—which are, in effect, birth certificates—marks the opening of a new health service to the people of the state.

Dr. Wilmer R. Batt, chief of the Statistical Bureau, will be in charge of the work. A corps of six employes will be kept busy constantly recording the births and making out the certificates telling the parents that their child's birth is recorded at the State Capitol.

Each year, according to Dr. Batt, there are 230,000 children born in Pennsylvania, or an average of approximately 640 a day. Oftimes in the past, attending physicians neglected to send a notice of the birth to the Health Department in Harrisburg. The parents had no way of knowing whether their child had been registered, so that years later, when the child reached school or working age, he was unable to procure the birth certificate required.

There have been cases on record where parents took their children abroad and had difficulty in bringing the children back into America because [illegible] available. The new registration service is expected to obviate much of the confusion that has been caused in the past by the lack of birth registration.

The service is being undertaken with the active co-operation of the Census Bureau of the Federal Government. The Census Bureau has supplied Dr. Batt with 230,000 birth registration blanks, to be mailed to the parents of Pennsylvania born population in the [illegible]

A CASE IN POINT.

It was not religion's fault, but the lack of religion, that caused the Rev. Lawrence M. Hight and Mrs. Wilford Sweetin, the Illinois couple, to commit murder. From newspaper accounts there were no "mitigating circumstances;" it was a case of illicit love. In their case youth cannot be used as alibi or as defense; the preacher and the woman are as guilty as were the Chicago murderers, and they should be punished as their deeds deserve.

It is beyond the ken of thinking men and women, men and women who are inclined to the right and will not allow passion to control them, why a minister of the gospel and a member of his flock should so far forget their marital obligations and their duty to their God, as to transgress both moral and spiritual law. A preacher who acknowledges that he was too weak to resist temptation when the character of a woman of his flock was involved, shows little of the true elements of manhood, particularly from one who is presumed to be a notch higher in his spiritual relations to his Maker than is the average of his flock. And a woman who will connive with him in murder, is not one whit better than is he.

There is a feature in connection with the case, however, and that is that some people will lose faith in the clergy and church members because of the wrong-doing and dereliction of the few. This is manifestly unjust to Christian people as the great majority of them are God-fearing, subscribing their high aims to the best of their ability.

LA FOLLETTE'S SPEECH.

The third party socialist candidate did not receive the welcome his supporters expected when he made his initial speech of the campaign in New York. It was expected and predicted by some of his ardent socialistic supporters that a riot would ensue as a result of an intense desire to hear the senator deliver his premiere address and that great overflow crowds would surround the building. According to advices from New York only a portion of those present at the meeting were financial contributors to the third party strong-box. LaFollette's speech was far from being the dramatic effort that his followers had expected. He did not take the expected crack at the tariff that was anticipated; he did not rap it because he realized that agricultural implements were on the free list, while agricultural products were protected by the tariff, a tariff that has aided very materially in helping the farmer. The farmers remember that he voted against the bill that gave them protection—that he voted against the bill that put agricultural implements on the free list. It was apparent that LaFollette realized that his tariff views did not meet those of the farmer, the dairy product men or the cattle men of the country. These producers of food stuffs have not been and will not be fooled by any low tariff bunkum by LaFollette or any one else. He also realizes that labor is not going to support any candidate who stands for low tariff, which would mean, as it has in the past, bread lines, soup kitchens, little if any work, low wages — when there should happen to be any work. Lack of work and low wages are things that no sensible American wants. Socialistic, communistic or Soviet doctrines will not be voted for by the voters this fall. LaFollette's speech was devoid of any sensational features that were expected in another respect; namely, his attack on the Supreme Court of the United States was not what anyone might call a decided success. For the people of the country realize that the Supreme Court is for the protection of each and every citizen of the country; that without it no one could be assured of adequate and continual protection. Once again is brought to mind that famous saying of Abraham Lincoln's: "You can fool some of the people all of the time, and all of the people some of the time; but you can't fool all of the people all of the time."

We are a Christian nation, a God-loving people and such we will remain.

Thousands who have not voted for years this fall will vote for Coolidge because he stands for the Constitution of the United States and the protection it gives to all the people. He stands for a tariff that means plenty of work and high wages. The voters will not be fooled by the "Reds," the socialists and others.

It is now proposed to punish the non-voter's offense by providing for its perpetuation. Disfranchisement is seriously suggested as the punishment to fit the crime. Let all who are too lazy, too absorbed in other matters, too busy to inform themselves and cast their ballots intelligently, be forever barred from the privileges. Though many slackers might resent this and make outcry, would not many others after the first moments of indignation, show only too great a willingness to be no longer "bothered?" Another equally surprising proposal is to prevent by law abstension from voting, to arrest the slackers, cart them to the polling places, and force them to assist in choosing public officers. Obviously both sets of alarmed patriots—or radical busybodies—need to think up something more feasible and less destructive of individual freedom. Printed agitation marked with persuasive of individual freedom. Printed agitation marked with persuasive eloquence would do no violence and might accomplish something.

PIRATES BEAT CUBS IN DOUBLE HEADER IN PITTSBURGH

Bill McKechnie's luckless Corsairs picked off both pastimes in a double-header with the Cubs yesterday at Forbes Field, but it was something like answering a call to breakfast, only to find that the rest of the family had licked the platters clean, for the Buccos skidded out of the running before they returned home from the East for their last stand of the season.

The scores of the two clashes were 9 to 3 in the opening section and 10 to 6 in the other affair. Hack Miller of the Bruins pushed a homer out of the ballf yard in the last engagement, while Glenn Wright, a little later in the afternoon, smote one for the circuit. Glenn's wallop remained inside the enclosure.

The Pirates peeled the cataracts from their batting eyes and produced 15 safe smashes in each portion of the bargain while Ray Kremer held the visitors to 10 in the early game and they got 11 off Southpaw Don Songer and Big Eddie Pfeffer in the second combat. But two of these licks materialized after the change in pitchers, but all six of the runs were scored off the youngster from Oklahoma.

CALIFORNIA NORMAL WINS OVER THE WEST LIBERTY TEAM

California Normal school opened its football season on its grounds yesterday afternoon by defeating the West Liberty gridders by the score of 14 to 6. The Californians were more aggressive and had the pigskin in their possession during most of the contest.

The drizzling rain which fell throughout the game made the pigskin unusually slippery and caused numerous fumbles. West Liberty scored their touchdown in the third quarter, when Kimmins, left guard, received the ball after a California player had fumbled behind his own goal line. During the last quarter, Kennedy, a California back, intercepted a forward pass and ran 35 yards for the touchdown. California was in possession of the ball within one yard of the West Liberty goal when the final whistle blew. The lineup:

| California—14. | | West Liberty—6. |
|---|---|---|
| Channing | LE | Jones |
| McLaughlin | LT | Worker |
| Fellows | LG | Kimmins |
| Ashman | C | Kahle |
| Fee | RG | Crissinger |
| Griffiths | RT | Blazer |
| McMunn | RE | Ellis |
| Bruce | LH | Hand |
| Kennedy | RH | Tiger |
| Brown (C) | FB | (C) Evans |

Substitutions—California: Bier for McLaughlin, Rauck for Ashman, Linquist for Griffiths, Wagner for McMunn, Sladden for Kennedy, Skinner for Sladden, Kennedy for Skinner. West Liberty: Reese for Jones, McBride for Reese, Robertson for Worker, Robertson for Crissinger. Touchdowns—California. Weaver for Kennedy. West Liberty. Kimmins. Goals after touchdown—California 2. Umpire—Sheridan, Penn State. Referee—Schwartz. Head linesman—Miller, Allegheny.

THE PALACE SHOWS AN EXCELLENT BILL

The Palace theatre has a most excellent bill this week ending. The feature probably, in the estimation of the patrons of the house, is the Philippine troupe, native Philippinos, in quaint songs and instrumental renditions, featuring the Royal String orchestra. The musical numbers of the troupe are varied from the classical to the sublime and the patriotic and must be heard to be appreciated.

The moving pictures and the vaudeville numbers are fully up to the high standard of the house, and it would seem as though Manager Barnhart is striving for something better with each week, for the bills seem to have more excellence in them every time we attend the theatre.

With Work, Hughes, New and Stone in it, our cabinet begins to read like a builder's report.

LOS ANGELES MAN DETHRONES CHAMPION PLAYING AT GOLF

Youth was served in large measure in the semi-final round of the national amateur golf tournament at Ardmore yesterday. George Von Elm of Los Angeles dethroned the champion, Max R. Marston of Philadelphia by 7 and 6, and Robert T. Jones, Jr., of Atlanta eliminated Francis Quinet of Boston, 11 and 10.

Either Jones or Von Elm will become champion as the result of the final 36-hole round today. They have never met before in the national tournament, Jones, second in the qualifying round with a score of 144, has had the more formidable foes to eliminate, Marston excepted; Von Elm, tied for eighth place in the qualifying round with a score of 144, has had the more formidable foes to eliminate, Marston excepted; Von Elm, tied for eighth place in the qualifying round with a score of 144, has had the better medal today by three strokes.

attracted attention all the week by the lowness of his medal scores in match play, although Jones, with a 73, had the better medal today by three strokes.

"THE HUNCHBACK" A SUPERLATIVE OF PICTURES

Of "The Hunchback of Notre Dame," which will be shown at the Majestic for four days, commencing Monday, Alan Dale comments:

"This much I'll say and you can flaunt it before my eyes evermore: a more remarkable, epochal, unforgettable, haunting and obsessional piece of eccentric, bizarre, cynical character acting than that contributed to "The Hunchback of Notre Dame", by Lon Chaney I have never seen on either stage or screen. If Victor Hugo could have taken one peep at this visualization of his own imagination, it would have given him a thousand sensational ideas.

"You will dream of thi "Quasimodo,' you will thrill mentally at the recollection of this demoniac, cynical, leering, hideous monstrosity — the pivot around which revolves the tremendous episodes of a really marvelous picture. At times this "Quasimodo" is haroldlloydish, as he creeps along the cornices of Notre Dame, circles down its masonry, dropped from its heights, and viewed from aloft the turmoil and kaleidoscopic movement of Paris. This Quassimodo, intent upon his purpose—a dwarf of redoubtable character, a thwarted human being of hypertrophied intelligence, scum of the earth, but psychologically enormous—gave you the whole bag full of human emotions and contributed a screen characterization that will live forever. Everybody will speak of this astounding "Quasimodo," nobody can overlook him, he is as solid as Notre Dame itself."

Good Stationery and Lots of It

If the nation's supply of good stationery were limited and obtainable only by the few, there would be some excuse for the kinds of note-paper on which some of us write to some of us. But this isn't the case. In the big assortment always on hand at this address there's good stationery enough for all of us.

Fountain pens, too. All leading makes. Especially Parker Pens—the famous Duofold, Over-size; Duofold Jr. and Lady Duofold; all styles, all points, all sizes. Step in and look them over.

Free-Inspection Service: If the pen you've been carrying is out of commission, bring it in. We'll examine it without charge. If it is fixable, we know how to fix it. Charges moderate.

The Personal Side

Mrs. A. C. Anderson and daughter Grace of Crest avenue, are visitors in Pittsburgh today.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Milliken of Washington avenue, are the parents of a 10-pound son born last night.

Miss Lillian Poundstone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Poundstone of Meadow avenue, is confined to her home on account of illness.

Misses Ellen Sumney, Elizabeth Felton, Ruth Cadman and Rachael Gibbons, all of Monongahela, were visitors in Charleroi last evening.

Dr. Anna G. Stephanko, who for the past month has been atending the International Lyceum of Chiropractors at Davenport, Iowa, returned to her home in South Brownsville today, and will be at her office in Fifth street, Monday at the usual time.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Taylor of Canton, O., will arrive in Charleroi this evening to spend the week-end at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Jenkins of 906 Fourth street. Mrs. Taylor, a bride of several weeks, will be remembered as Miss Edith Jenkins.

Ferd Falise, formeman of the hot mills of the Pittsburgh Steel Products company Monessen, who resides in McKean avenue, a patient in the Charleroi-Monessen hospital, having undergone an operation for the removal of the appendix last Saturday midnight, is reported as getting along as well as can be expected.

MANY ACCIDENTS BY SLIPPERY HIGHWAY

Eight other automobile accidents have been reported, which occurred last night within an hour on the West Newton road, and the Webster-Monessen road, due to the rain. The Fox Grocery company truck of this place was among those that skidded around the sharp curve at Nash's farm, the driver and a companion being forced to jump to safety. The truck came to a stop when it crashed into a telephone pole, smashing the two front wheels.

Roland Allen, owner of the Nash farm, and his son, in an effort to safeguard the motorists, took a position at the top of the hill and cautioned drivers to go into second gear before starting down the steep grade.

A total of six accidents occurred at this point of the road; two cars went over a small embankment in front of the Rankin farm on the West Newton road, while three accidents were reported on the Webster-Monessen road at Boyd's Hollow.

TWO PERSONS ARE HURT

considerably upon examination after the Ford came to a standstill.

Harry Kyle and Mike Bendie driver of the third car an Oldsmobile, both of Belle Vernon, were cut and bruised, when the car, after turning around three or four times, overturned in the highway, doing damage to the machine to a great extent. Kyle was cut on the back of the head, while Bendie received a bruised knee-cap and lacerations about the head. They were taken into Belle Vernon, and to a physician's office for treatment.

KU KLUX RAID BROTHELS IN WIRETON

Headed by Constable Harkness of Ligonier, a band of Ku Klux Klainsmen visited Wireton last evening, raiding a number of alleged disorderly houses, resulting in the arrest of eight women and four men. The men were freed on a $25 bail, while the women were taken to Greensburg.

Really Not Her Fault

A lady in great demand socially was duly summoned as a witness in some court proceedings. As she failed to appear a deputy marshal was sent to act as escort. Then the judge explained to her that she was in contempt of court and asked what she had to say. She was manifestly astonished at all this. "I meant no contempt," stated she. "I would have attended the trial gladly, only I had a previous engagement."

Taking Them in Order

The elevator boy was green at the job. Two passengers, a man and a woman, got on at the street floor. "Ninth," said the latter once they were fairly started. "Sixth," said the man. The car sped by the sixth floor and stopped at the ninth. On the way back the man said: "Why in thunder didn't you stop at the sixth floor? The sixth is lower than the ninth." "I know that," said the elevator boy, "but the lady said 'Ninth' first."

Longevity Recipe

The Cardinal de Solis, archbishop of Seville, in Spain, was one hundred ten years old when he died. He used to tell his friends, when asked what regimen he observed to enable him to live to such a great age, "By being old when I was young, I am able to be young when I am old. I led a sober, studious, contemplative, but not lazy or sedentary life."

In Society's Realm

Miss L. Audrey Michener of Lookout avenue, was hostess last evening to the first meeting of the Delta Theta club held at her home. With a full attendance, a pleasant evening was spent in sewing and social converse, following which, a dainty luncheon was served by the hostess. Adjournment was made, at a late hour, to meet again at the home of Miss Jeannette C. Rosenbloom of Fallowfield avenue, Thursday, October 9.

A surprise party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Lhoest of Crest avenue Thursday evening in honor of Miss Bertha Leclercq, who was celebrating her birthday anniversary. A number of friends of the honored guest were present and spent a delightful evening in games, music and dancing. Miss Leclercq was presented with many pretty gifts. At a late hour, luncheon was served by the hostess, after which the guests departed wishing Miss Bertha many happy returns of the day.

Mrs. Ida Garlick of Lookout avenue entertained the members of the Fancy Work club at her home yesterday afternoon. With the exception of one, there was a full attendance, and a very enjoyable afternoon was passed in sewing and social converse. In concluding, Mrs. Garlick served a delicious luncheon. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Carl M. Wertz in two weeks' time. Those present yesterday were Mrs. Lee Showers, Mrs. H. J. Repman, Mrs W. S. Cook, Mrs. Carl M. Wertz, Mrs. John Sutch, Mrs. George Clark, Mrs John Jenkins and Mrs. John Steinbaugh.

Mrs. Clifford Jones, a recent bride daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Frye of Fallowfield avenue, was accorded a delightful surprise last evening at the home of her parents, when approximately 25 of her intimate girl friends gathered at the Frye home and accorded her a miscellaneous shower. Mrs. Jones was the recipient of many beautiful and useful gifts. Through the joint efforts of Miss Florence Hott and Mrs. Frye, the affair was a complete surprise to the bride. After an evening spent in card playing and music a dainty luncheon was served by the hostesses assisted by Miss Kathryn Croushore of Belle Vernon. Out-of town guests were present from Monongahela, Monessen and Belle Vernon.

NIGHT FAIR IS TO FEATURE THE ANNUAL EXPO

The night fair to be held by Union Agricultural Association at its 69th annual exhibition at Burgettstown next week promises to be one of the big features. Night shows were held last year and they proved to be so successful that the management has decided to make this year's attraction bigger and better. The free acts will be put on ending with the fireworks display. This display will be one of the best ever seen in the Burgettstown section and it is expected the grounds will be crowded both nights.

The grounds have been wired throughout and now electric lights are used in the barns, horse stables and other parts of the ground, making it very convenient for the exhibitors and the patrons. The fireworks display will be in the center of the quarter stretch in front of the grandstand.

Despite the fact that the fair will not open until next Tuesday, considerable agricultural Association at its charge have been busy getting the entries made and everything prepared for the rush on the opening day.

Housewives Help National Prosperity By Eliminating Waste In the Kitchen

Food left-overs formerly consigned to the refuse container are now being utilized by thousands of housewives in fashioning palatable dishes.

"Thrift is shown by a large element of American women," says a survey by the National Association of Ice Industries, "despite the colossal kitchen waste which will only be eliminated through years of educational service by home economists.

"Since stress of war drove home the advantages of food conservation, at least ten percent of all housewives have continued along lines of economy. Since the war an additional twenty percent have been taught kitchen economy by the experts of various organizations. Therefore in thirty percent of American homes kitchen waste is reduced to a minimum. Food is properly cared for in well-iced refrigerators and wholesome left-overs are daintily prepared and quickly consumed. The refrigerators are properly packed but not stuffed with food.

"Greatest waste among individual families is recorded in the more prosperous homes where servants are maintained. When the problem of food wastage by careless servants is solved the aggregate annual kitchen loss will have been materially reduced. Food wastage also obtains to a considerable extent among the very poor families, due to ignorance and to inadequate refrigeration facilities. A chief fault is overstocking on pay day.

"Generally speaking, however, the average housewife is far more judicious than she was ten years ago, and she has learned the economy of a good refrigerator, with a well-filled ice chamber."

TO OPEN OFFICES AT WILKES-BARRE

Wilkes-Barre, Sept. 27—Preparations are now under way for the opening of offices in the Miners' Bank building here by District No 1, United Mine Workers of America, to facilitate the routine work incident to conducting union affairs in this section.

The district headquarters are at Scranton but fully half the district is adjacent to Wilkes-Barre and following collapse of the plan to move the headquarters here it was proposed to open branch offices here with two officials in charge This was approved by the last district board meeting.

Vice president Isaacs and International board member John Kmetz will be in charge of the Wilkes-Barre office It is claimed that this will speed up action on grievances and other matters arising in this part of the district.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving memory of our dear son, Melvin Duane Hindmarsh, who died September 28, 1922.

The month of September again is here,
To us. the saddest of all the year.
Two years have passed since that sad day,
When one we loved was called away.
Friends may think that we forget him,
When they see us smile,
But little know they of the sorrow,
Which that smile hides all the while.

Sadly missed by his Parents, Sister and Brother. 97t1p

PAUL D. WRIGHT REPLIES TO A CRITICISM

Harrisburg, Sept. 27. — "Pennsylvania cannot begin widening of pavement until important sections of the state now entirely without improved roads are got from the mud," said Highway Secretary Paul D. Wright today.

Mr. Wright referred to a criticsm of the Department of Highways made by certain people of Coatesville. Recently the Department completed a concrete thoroughfare on the Lincoln Highway from Coatesville to Downingtown. It replaced a worn-out macadam road. Coatesville people who plan to observe the formal opening of this new thoroughfare on Thursday have said their gathering is to be a "meeting of protest," because the 18-foot roadway is "not wide enough."

"The Department admits cheerfully there are many main state highway sections not so wide as they should be," continued Secretary Wright. "But we also take the stand that the day of 'Special Privilege' is past; that no one section of Pennsylvania should benefit at the expense of another. There are people in Coatesville who ask us to favor that city and Downingtown at the expense of other parts of Pennsylvania.

"Were we to put down between Downingtown and Coatesville a wide concrete boulevard, what would be said to us and of us by those Pennsylvanians living on the 5,000 miles of absolutely unimproved state highway? Of course Coatesville wants a 24 foot or a 36-foot road' So do dozens of other sections. But the people who travel 5,000 miles of earth state roads will be satisfied with 16 feet of anything that will keep them out of the mud. A sense of proportion is very necessary at times.

"The Lincoln Highway pavement should be 40 feet wide from the edge of the metropolitan district of Philadelphia to Gettysburg. The William Penn Highway should be 40 feet wide from Easton to Allentown and Reading to Harrisburg. Between Philadelphia and Reading the pavement should be 40 feet in width. In fact our nine named thoroughfares should be 40 feet in width But it is not possible merely to rub a lamp and get roads The days of magicians are past And hundreds of thousands of Pennsylvanians on 5,000 miles of earth state roads merely ask that we get them out of the mud"

It was recommended by William H. Connell, Engineering Executive of the Department of Highways, that provision should be made at this time for the ultimate width of all state highways, so the pavements can be widened as traffic warrants and the money becomes available. Plans will be filed shortly for an ultimate right-of-way width for the Coatesville-Downingtown section of at least 80 feet.

"The Coatesville-Downingtown section is just as wide as the pavement on numerous other sections of state highway now carrying over twice the traffic the Coatesville-Downingtown section will carry," said Mr. Connell.

Eventually, like other main thoroughfares, it will be widened. In the meantime, half the state highway system is earth roads; and much of this earth road is highly important It must be improved

The Department recommends that in all cases the width of the right-of-way determined upon for state highways shall provide not only for estimated future traffic, but also for pedestrian traffic. It is recommended that highways should all be laid out with an ultimate right-of-way width of 50 to 120 feet These widths in all cases should provide a sufficient number of 10-foot traffic lanes for estimated future road use, and also sidewalk space for pedestrians The Lincoln Highway, William Penn and other named roads should have a 40-foot pavement, which will give space for two fast-moving and two slow-moving traffic lanes in each direction. When the money is available this improvement will be brought about. In the meantime the state of Pennsylvania must not forget the people who live along or who use the 5,000 miles of dirt on the state highway system"

THE SEASON OF 1924 REPORTED AS THE BEST

Harrisburg, Sept. 27—The spring forest fire season of 1924 was the best since the organization of the department of forestry, it was announced in a statement recently.

A small number of fires occurred and a smaller acreage was burned over than in any previous forest fire season, it was stated. No phase of the whole forest fire situation was more gratifying than the small acreage of plantations burned over.

ests and Waters show that to date date 35,473,733 trees have been planted on the state forests, and 32,473,733 trees have been set out by private owners in all parts of the state.

During the entire spring of 1924 only one-tenth of an acre of planted trees was burned over. This single plantation fire occurred in the Kittanning Forest district. The owner of the plantation received $20 damages from the road contractors responsible.

Pineapple Country

South Africa is reported to possess the largest industry in the British empire for the growing and packing of pineapples Like most fruits of a tropical or semi-tropical character, pineapples thrive in Natal, the eastern part of the Cape Province, and in certain parts of the Transvaal. The principal area, however, is in the eastern part of the Cape Province, where climatic conditions are most favorable.

Our Flag

The flag of our country is not simply a piece of bunting which can be purchased for a few dimes at the nearest shop; it is not a mere cluster of brilliant colors; it is the emblem of dignity, authority, power. In this free land there is no sovereignty, no crown; our sole emblem of fidelity to country is the flag.—Gen. Horace Porter.
